

Gun Violence Prevention Challenge Summit & Hack-a-thon

April 13 – 15, 2018 | Boston, Massachusetts

Martin is an activist, organizer, and mental health counselor. Martin's interests include alternative community structures, dismantling white supremacy, intersectional dialogue, and coalition building. Martin's work includes being an organizer for Black Lives Matter – Boston, and he often speaks to various groups about the importance of BLM's presence in the narrative of America's history and current political climate.