

MASSACHUSETTS
GENERAL HOSPITAL

CAMTech

Consortium for Affordable Medical Technologies

Gun Violence Prevention Challenge Summit & Hack-a-thon

April 13 – 15, 2018 | Boston, Massachusetts

Sarah is an experienced Design Thinker and Strategist with a demonstrated history of working in health care technology and services. She is passionate about using empathy and industry-proven frameworks to solve big problems & drive meaningful innovation within the healthcare industry. She currently works as a Product Experience Manager on the Fusion Team within Optum Technology, where she helps internal teams create products centered around those UHG is committed to serve, patients and providers. Sarah is a graduate of Northeastern University in Boston, where she studied Business Management and Health Science. She loves gluten-free cooking and living an active lifestyle. In her free time, you can find her traveling across the globe exploring new cities and cultures.